Loss-sensitive Rating Options Available

What's a Loss-sensitive Program?

It's a form of insurance that allows you to pay a lower upfront premium. You pay "dollar one" up to a set limit because your business will actually participate in loss payment, up to a retention that's agreed upon between you and The Hartford.

As losses occur, the insurer:

- Pays the claim
- Bills you for the loss amount, plus service fees for losses within the retained layer

Tailored Program Structures

- Large deductibles
- SIR's
- Composite rating
- Multiple billing options
