

DISCLOSURE PURSUANT TO TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT

A. Terrorism Coverage and Premium

In accordance with the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act (as amended "TRIA"), we have included coverage for "certified acts of terrorism" under some coverage parts of this policy. The actual coverage provided by your policy(ies) will be limited by the terms, conditions, exclusions, limits, and other provisions of your policy(ies), as well as any applicable rules of law.

Where such coverage applies, the portion of your premium attributable to this terrorism coverage is $0.

B. The following definition is added with respect to the provisions of this notice:

A "certified act of terrorism" means an act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with the provisions of TRIA, to be an act of terrorism under TRIA. The criteria contained in TRIA for a "certified act of terrorism" include the following:

1. The act results in insured losses in excess of $5 million in the aggregate, attributable to all types of insurance subject to TRIA; and
2. The act results in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of damage to an air carrier (as defined in section 40102 of title 49, United States Code), a United States flag vessel (or a vessel based principally in the United States, on which United States income tax is paid and whose insurance coverage is subject to regulation in the United States), regardless of where the loss occurs, or at the premises of any United States mission; and
3. The act is a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure and is committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.

C. Disclosure Of Federal Share Of Terrorism Losses Under TRIA

The United States Department of the Treasury will reimburse insurers for 85% of insured losses that exceed the applicable insurer deductible. Effective January 1, 2016, this percentage will be reduced to 84%, effective January 1, 2017 to 83%, effective January 1, 2018 to 82%, effective January 1, 2019 to 81%, and effective January 1, 2020 to 80%.

However, if aggregate insured losses attributable to "certified acts of terrorism" under TRIA exceed $100 billion in a calendar year, the Treasury shall not make any payment for any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion. The United States Government has not charged any premium for their participation in covering terrorism losses.

D. Cap On Insurer Liability for Terrorism Losses Under TRIA

If aggregate insured losses attributable to "certified acts of terrorism" under TRIA exceed $100 billion in a calendar year and we have met, or will meet, our insurer deductible under TRIA we shall not be liable for the payment of any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion. In such case, your coverage for terrorism losses may be reduced on a pro-rata basis in accordance with procedures established by the Treasury, based on its estimates of aggregate industry losses and our estimate that we will exceed our insurer deductible. In accordance with Treasury procedures, amounts paid for losses may be subject to further adjustments based on differences between actual losses and estimates.
