

Ultimate Beneficial Owner (UBO) statement

Why this form?

Financial institutions have to comply with financial supervision regulations and legislation, such as the Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Prevention Act (Wwft), the Financial Supervision Act and the sanctions regulations and legislation, requiring us to conduct a customer due diligence review prior to concluding a contract. Without a customer due diligence review we cannot process your proposal or payments. Part thereof is to determine the Ultimate Beneficial Owners, abbreviated to 'UBO', and check them against the sanction lists. We therefore urge you to complete this form as soon as possible.

Who are your UBOs?

For the to be completed client due diligence, by or on behalf of the financial institution, the UBO will be determined by below criteria.

Is your organisation a legal entity, such as an association, foundation, co-operative, mutual benefit company, public company limited by shares, private company with limited liability or a similar legal form under foreign law, then your UBO is the natural person who:

- holds a direct or indirect interest of more than 25% in the capital or assets of your organisation and/or exercises more than 25% of the voting rights at the general meeting or voting of articles of association of your organisation.
- has special control. This is understood to mean that the person has a special controlling right laid down in the articles of association for instance.
- *has effective control of your organisation.

Note: if the shares in your organisation have been transferred to a Trust Office Foundation, the holders of the corresponding depository receipts may qualify as UBO based on the above-mentioned criteria.

Is your organisation a one-man business or unincorporated partnership, such as a general, trading or limited partnership or a similar legal form under foreign law, then your UBO is a natural person who directly or indirectly is entitled to more than 25% of the profits of your organisation and/or who can exercise more than 25% of the voting rights if decision-making in your organisation requires a majority of votes and/or has effective control(*) of your organisation.

* Effective control of a legal entity or unincorporated partnership is the case if a natural person:

1. has the authority to appoint or discharge the majority of a supervisory, executive or administrative body,
2. has control of the majority of the voting rights,
3. has an otherwise controlling influence on the organisation and/or
4. has the power of disposal of (part of) the assets of the organisation.

Note: there has to be at least 1 person with effective control.

When in doubt, please fill in the details of potential UBOs on the next page as well. Attention: there may be more than one UBO.
